Stipulation Child Labor Violations with Injury

It is agreed by the undersigned employer and the Department of Labor, Division of Labor Standards, that:

- civil penalty is assessed today in the amounts and for the violation(s) listed below; and
- if the Workers' Compensation Board finds that any child listed is partially or totally permanently disabled, the penalty will be increased to three times the maximum allowed under Section 141.1 of the New York State Labor Law.

If the full payment is not received by the due date:

- this agreement will become void;
- an Order to Comply may be issued by the Commissioner of Labor; and
- the maximum penalty allowed by law may be imposed.
