Payment Notice

Minimum Wage Underpayment

The Division of Labor Standards recently conducted an investigation of an establishment in which you were an employee. It was found that the wages paid to you were below those required by the State Minimum Wage Law. Payment enclosed represents the difference between the wages actually paid to you and the wages computed under the law, less deductions authorized by law. The name of your employer is indicated on the check stub.

Wage Claim or Wage Supplement Restitution

Your employer has agreed to make payment on your claim for unpaid wages and/or wage supplements which was filed with the Division of Labor Standards. Payment enclosed represents the amount due less deductions authorized by law.

We are pleased to forward this check to you.
